Drive Over Asphalt Streets.

Four teamsters were arraigned in Police Court yesterday morning on charges of violating the city ordinance by driving heavily loaded vehicles over asphalt streets. Each was fined $2. They were W. W. Ricks, Sam Timberlake and J. W. Woodson. Several whose offenses were committed in Grace Street between Third and Ninth, were dismissed because Broad Street is closed.

New N. and W. Depot at Blacksburg

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Blacksburg, Va., December 7.—With ample facilities for handling the considerable amount of freight and express that comes or goes from here each day, and comfortable accommodations for the traveling public, the new depot of the Norfolk and Western Railway at Blacksburg is now completed and in use. Located on the company's land at the south end of Main Street, it is convenient to the business part of the town, has the advantages of furnace heat and electric lights, and is supplied with water for necessary sewerage from the town system.

The building is 24 by 103 feet, and is modeled after the plan of the railway stations in many college towns. Under the same roof are separate waiting rooms for white and colored, freight and express rooms, a baggage room and record room, in front is an umbrella shed 14 by 25 feet that affords ample protection from the weather to those arriving or departing on the trains. The building is painted a light gray, artistic and pleasing to the eye, and the approach is an easy one for teamsters as well as pedestrians. A concrete sidewalk extending from the limits of the station grounds to the extreme limits of the town along Main Street.

For nine years the people of Blacksburg and the nearby country have put up with the inconvenience of having no depot at all; the frame shack in use for this time not being worth the name of a railway station. When the Virginia Anthracite Railway was acquired by the Norfolk and Western at public sale last January, one of the first moves made by the new owners was to build a station in keeping with the town and V. P. 1. That it has been completed and opened to the public without delay is a compliment to the town and a credit to the company.

SICK HEADACHE? TONGUE COATED? IT'S YOUR LIVER! CASCARETS SURE

In five minutes! Time it! All Indigestion, Heartburn and Dyspepsia gone and your stomach feels fine.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if you're gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; bile gags and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Cascarets and in five minutes you will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women realize that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Cascarets occasionally keeps the stomach regulated, and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal lunch without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Cascarets, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and does things straight, so easily and easily that it is astonishing. Please don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's too unnecessary.

WILL BE EXTRADITED.

Abducting City Treasurer of Danville to Be Brought Back to United States.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Danville, Va., December 7.—Governor William Hodges Mann has been officially notified by the State Department at Washington of the arrest at Buenos Ayres, Argentina, of William S. Paylor, abducting city treasurer, who left here in July.

Investigation developed a shortage in Paylor's accounts with the State of over $5,000. Nothing was heard of his whereabouts until recently when he was located at Buenos Ayres through the activity of a bonding company.

When the necessary preliminaries were arranged he was arrested on an order from Washington. He will be brought back to this country. Paylor left his wife here in his flight.

Governor Mann this afternoon wired the Commonwealth's attorney for his application for extradition.

The capture of Paylor makes it certain that the Commonwealth's attorney will fight for a continuance in the Fraud case. Bonds are charged with embezzlement in collusion with Paylor.
